Game show marathon

Come on Down! Guests or 'lucky contestants' will be given the opportunity to take part in a medley of popular TV Game Shows from the 80's including Family Fortunes, Play Your Cards Right, The Price is Right and Bullseye!

Contestants will run down those steps, arms waving, adrenaline flowing, where they will be met by the Compere, Dolly Dealers and game show set as we test the wits and performance of your colleagues – highly visual, entertaining and energetic. Heaps of fun!

Let's get quizzical

A completely bespoke version of the popular TV game show – fully computerised with lighting rig, sound bites and all 3 Life Lines! Delegates compete in teams, allowing for great audience interaction. Company / product questions can be input to further deliver conference messages.

Alternatively, the wicked ways of Anne Robinson can be brought to your evening event. Contestants will be asked a series of quick-fire questions, some downright easy – some more challenging, often with hilarious results (much to the delight of your audience!).

Race Night

The sport of kings brought to you live and kicking into your venue of choice with all the atmosphere and razzmatazz associated with a race meeting. Funny money is provided and the tables compete as teams to back the winners of the 8 race card.

Once money starts to be accrued, auctions are held and teams can buy the horses. Alternatively, 'Reel em In' races are highly audience participative, highly competitive and highly amusing!

Using delegate volunteers pitched against one another to race their rocking horses we guarantee that the volume levels will rise to near hysteria.

Horses race between start and finish lines – payout on wins only!

Monopoly

The connection to the actual board game is fairly tenuous! You do play for money and the room can be dressed as a Monopoly board, though that's where it ends.

The group is divided into suitably named teams, which all pass go and collect £200. From here on in, they all compete at a number of games set up at the various streets.

The different tasks make up the game. Referees pay out Monopoly money after each task and the team that accrues the most wins!

Giant Games

Liven up any event, daytime or evening, with the inclusion of some giant games. Can be run as a structured team competition or alternatively just come and play.

Relive those sibling battles as you challenge your opposition to Giant Connect 4, Giant Jenga or Giant Tiddlywinks! Other games include: Target Basketball, Target Marbles, Skittles, Putting, Giant Battleships, Giant Twister, Splat the Rat, Target Snooker, Alley Quoits, Table Tennis, Giant Dominoes, Giant Downfall, Giant Shove Ha'penny, Giant Chess, Giant Table Skittles and Space Hoppers.

Guaranteed to bring on the laughter!

Casino Night

The High Rollers is undoubtedly an excellent way to enhance an evening function with the opportunity for some fun at the tables. All tables are full size, individually lit, stylishly presented and manned by professional croupiers.

Guests can place their bets and spin the Roulette wheel or play Blackjack against the dealer, keep up with the pace in the fast and furious game of Craps or put on their 'not telling' face as they play Stud Poker.

Murder Mystery

Your mission over dinner and during the remainder of the evening is to solve the crime. A 'whodunit?' style event, which provides excellent evening entertainment for your guests.

As actors mingle suspiciously with the guests, suspicions rise and the story starts to unfold. As the evening continues, the scene is set and pseudonyms are planted. Teams cross-examine the characters, draw vital information and clues, pass red herrings and gossip wildly before the truth is revealed.

Finally, as the murderer is unmasked, the speculation is over and guests can retire comfortably, safe in the knowledge that the crime has been solved!

We'll transform any room or venue for your event, starting with themed invitation design if you so wish, and to include table decorations to dramatic fabric backdrops, appropriate entertainment to chair covers and everything else in between.
